Further amend said bill, Page 28, Section 313.1020, Line 15, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"313.1022. 1. The commission shall adopt rules to enforce the following requirements for any person, owner, or employee engaged in sports wagering or the ownership of a sports wagering business under sections 313.800 to 313.1022:

(1) A prohibition on the sale or transfer of personal information on sports wagering customers or data related to an individual customer's practice of sports wagering except as authorized under section 313.1014;

(2) A reimbursement requirement to the requisite state agency, including the Missouri department of revenue or the Missouri department of social services, for any delinquent child support, state income tax owed, or any reimbursement owed to a government subsidized program, by any patron whose single-day winnings exceed five hundred dollars. The commission shall retain not less than seventy-five percent of any winnings greater than five hundred dollars for such purposes and shall work in conjunction with the requisite state agencies to develop a reimbursement process;

(3) A prohibition on any person who is:
(a) An athlete;
(b) A coach;
(c) A referee;
(d) A director of a sports governing body or its member teams;
(e) A player or referee personnel member; (f) A participant in any sports event overseen by such person's sports governing body based on publicly available information; (g) A position holder who can exert authority or influence over participants in a sports contest including, but not limited to, a coach, manager, handler, or athletic trainer; (h) An individual with access to exclusive information on any sports event overseen by such individual's governing body based on publicly available information; or (i) A person identified on a list provided by a sports event governing body to the commission who shall not be permitted to have any ownership interest in, control of, or otherwise be employed by an operator, a sports wagering licensee, or a facility in which a sports wagering lounge is located or to place a wager on a sports event that is overseen by such person's sports governing body based on publicly available information.

Any employee of a sports governing body or its member teams who is not prohibited from wagering on a sports event shall provide notice to the commission prior to placing a wager on a sports event.
The direct or indirect legal or beneficial owner of a sports governing body or any of its member teams shall not place or accept any wager on sports events in which any member team of that sports governing body participates. A violation of this subdivision shall result in a fine of not less than five thousand dollars and not more than ten thousand dollars;

(4) A requirement that all operators adopt procedures to prevent persons from wagering on sports events who are prohibited from placing sports wagers. An operator shall not accept wagers from any person whose identity is known to the operator and whose name appears on the exclusion list maintained by the commission, who is the operator, director, officer, owner, or employee of the operator or any relative thereof living in the same household as the operator, or any person who has access to nonpublic confidential information held by the operator, or who is an agent or proxy for any other person; and

(5) A requirement that operators adopt procedures to obtain personally identifiable information from any individual who places any single wager in an amount of ten thousand dollars or more on a sports event while physically present in a racetrack facility or a casino.

2. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2019, shall be invalid and void."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.
